

2012 JEANZ ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAMME***

Theme: Journalism Education and Fast Accurate News

Wednesday

JTO-JEANZ day 10am to 4pm

Parallel session: Shorthand tutors 1pm-5pm.

4pm-5pm: Hobbit Project, smartphones and digital cameras shooting high definition video.

Evening: JTO dinner

Thursday

8.45am: Registration

9.15am: Welcome—Ron Wilkinson, Whitireia NZ Council Member, former Radio NZ general manager, radio journalist.

9.30am: Housekeeping

9.40am: Keynote address—Tim Pankhurst, CMITO

10.25am: Morning tea

10.40am: Grant Hannis—shorthand paper

11am: Shorthand—tutors' report and discussion

Noon: lunch

Session: Fast Accurate News

1pm: Fast Accurate Video for the web—Hobbit Project and teaching feedback from room, including panel from Fairfax Digital.

1.50pm: Cathy Strong—Gender disparity in newsrooms

2.10pm: Bernie Whelan—Appreciating newsroom leadership

2.30pm: Tara Ross—Teaching journalism students to appreciate audiences
(Parallel session for shorthand tutors to consider feedback from morning session)

2.50pm: Afternoon tea

Session: Fast Accurate News continued

3.10pm: Jocelyn Darling—"You're not wrong for long", verification and "truthiness"

3.30pm Selene Mize (OU) - NZ Press Council processes and enforcement

4pm-5pm: Panel—New Media and Regulation – John Burrows (Law Commission), Mary Major (Press Council), Susan Freeman-Greene (BSA)

6pm: Drinks and dinner Simply Paris—Guest speaker: Keith Ng, investigative journalist/blogger who broke the WINZ computer booth privacy story.

Friday

9am: JEANZ annual meeting

10.45am: Morning tea

11am: Allison Oosterman—William Kitchen and The Globe

Investigative Journalism and the age of Fast Accurate News

11.20am: Jim Tucker—Saving the wai

11.40am: Wajeehah Sabahat (Swinburne)—Teaching Investigative Journalism through Alternate Reality Game; a case study.

12pm: James Hollings—teaching investigative journalism

12.20pm: Fairfax schools data project—Clio Francis (who has spent time in US studying data journalism investigation).

1pm: Lunch and farewells

*Minor changes may be made to some timing.