

SCHIAVON JOURNALISM scholarships

The School of Communication and Creative Arts in the Faculty of Arts and Education at Deakin University is pleased to accept applications for the May and Romeo Schiavon Rural and Regional Journalism Studies Doctoral Scholarship to commence in early 2010. The Scholarship will support the successful applicant for three years of doctoral work on an aspect of rural and regional journalism. Based primarily with our journalism program at Deakin's Geelong Campus at Warrnambool, the scholarship is for $20,000 per annum for three years.

To be eligible for the scholarship applicants should possess the following:

- » A first-class honours or masters degree or equivalent
- » Experience as a professional journalist in print, television, online and/or radio
- » A proposed project that investigates a significant issue or aspect of regional and rural journalism

Deadline for applications: Monday 18 January 2010

The May and Romeo Schiavon Rural and Regional Journalism Studies Honours Scholarship is also available through the School and the journalism program commencing in March, 2010. The Schiavon Rural and Regional Journalism Studies Doctoral Scholarship has been established with the generous support of the May and Romeo Schiavon Endowment, a trust that is administered by ANZ Trustees.
