

Jeanz conference June 29-30

Booked Conference rooms: A107 and A108

Guests: Paul Thompson, Tim Murphy, Tony Wall, Kirsty Johnston, Jeremy Rees

Thursday
8.45	Registration (A107)
9am	Keynote speaker (Paul Thompson, RNZ Chief Executive, A107)
10am	Morning tea
10.30	1 (A107)	Tara Ross: Mediating publicness
10.45	2	Zaman Akhteruz: News sources in NZ
11am	3	Annabel Schuler: The only constant is change
11.15	4	Danni Mulrennan: Television News: an ugly business?
11.30	5	Catherine Strong: Growing local authority secrecy intolerable
11.45	6	Grant Hannis: Obtaining ACEJMC accreditation for your journalism school
Noon	Lunch
1pm	Panel A107, Aimie Cronin chairing: Tim Murphy (Newsroom co-founder), Tony Wall (Fairfax), Kirsty Johnston (NZME)
2pm	7 (A107)	David Mahony: The monetarisation of news: A new golden era?
2.15	8	Sue Burgin: Mojo: Ticking the education boxes with mobile journalism
2.30	9	Fran Tyler: Recent changes to police media protocols
2.45	10	Nancy El-Gamel: Teaching social media to the social media generation
3pm	Afternoon tea
3.30	11 (A107)	Bernie Whelan: Biculturally conscious journalism education
3.45	12	James Hollings: How do New Zealand journalists compare to others around the world?
4pm	13	Charles Riddle and Richard Walker: Exploring a new journalism curriculum: muddy thoughts
4.15	14	Ravi Bajpai: Fellow ICFJ-Knight, multimedia journalism
6pm	Conference dinner: TBC

Friday
9am	Round table (A107) With Jeremy Rees (National Communities Editor @ Fairfax) Teaching journalism in a time of upheaval
10am	Morning tea
10.15	Jeanz AGM (A107)
12.30	Industry lunch with politicians (Ferrybank Lounge, Grantham Street, overlooking the muddy Waikato River)	