

Exercise 1: Answers

1. Writer Queenie Bloggs, Ngāti Raukawa, says ....
2. None.
3. No, younger people may be given the role because of their proficiency in the Māori language and knowledge of tikanga.
4. “Taurahere” are Māori individuals or groups with kinship ties who join together for a common purpose and who either live outside their tribal territories or are urban-based.
5. Ngāpuhi
6. Check out www.maorimaps.com
7. Five marae, all affiliated to Ngāti Raukawa ki te Tonga:
  - 615 SH1, Manakau;
  - 944 SH1, Manakau;
  - 20 Convent Rd, Ōtaki;
  - 90 Mill Rd, Ōtaki;
  - 195 Swamp Rd, Te Horo.
8. He had broken his collarbone.
9. She had become “weary” or “impatient” with the speaker.
10. Te Rauparaha. If you don’t know who he was, find out.